OHIO.
Philadelphia paper says, as the law of this State do not permit the banks to suspend more than thirty days, they can save them but a call of the Legislature to amend the law. That is a silly notion.—No such call will be made. The banks know their own business, and it is their business, and it is their business, to perform it. If they do not, the Bank Commissioners will do it for them—that is all in that view of the subject.—Ohio Statesman.

If you hear a "whig" attributing the Massachusetts victory to the striped pig law, don't for a moment contradict him but admit that "all the day long" of that state evidently prefer rum to banks.

Uncomfortable,—said one Federalist to another, (in an under tone) "since the Tennessee, Alabama, Indiana, Ohio, Missouri, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Maine, New Hampshire, Georgia, and Massachusetts elections, are over, and since the failure of the Great Regulator. I feel as if a horse had kicked me."

A NICE DISTINCTION.
We perceive that a portion of the Federal party have been called together in this city to select delegates to some convention, to be held in Harrisburg or Hartford—we forget which, under the significant cognomen of "Democratic Whig Freemen!" Jupiter, what a name! We judge from this that there is some nice dividing line among these variegated political nondescripts, and that those only who are privileged to come on one particular side of it are allowed to attend these meetings. Democratic Whig Freemen—and Democratic Whig Slaves, the first party of the first part being composed of bank officers and stockholders, brokers and stockholders and speculators; the second party of the second part are doubtless those underlings who, in anticipation of some pecuniary profit, do the bidding of the first party of the first part of those Sir Oracles who, with arms akimbo, exclaim, "let no dog bark when we speak!" We cannot but admire the powerfully discriminating powers of the Federal junta.—New Era.

Coming to his senses.—A Western Editor lately had the audacity to announce to his subscribers that he would not take in payment for his paper, either woodchucks, dried apples, leather puppies, coon skins, tow, birch brooms, exhalations, wool or vegetables. But his subscribers, with that sturdy independence which they generally possess, refused to pay him anything else, and he now swears he is ready to take them at market prices. His subscribers have called a meeting to see whether it is best to pay him at all.—Exchange.

TALENT.
Homer was a beggar; Plautus turned a mill; Terrence was a slave; Boetius died in gaol; Tasso was often distressed for five shillings; Cervantes died of hunger; Bacon lived a life of meanness; Spenser died of want; Milton ended his life in obscurity; Dryden lived in poverty and died in distress; Otway died of hunger; Lee, in the streets; Goldsmith's Vicar of Wakefield was sold for a trifle to save him from prison; Fielding lies in the burying place of an English Factory; Savage died in prison; Chatterton destroyed himself; and John Keats died of a broken heart.

METEORIC SHOWERS. True to the time appointed by Professor Olmsted, for the return of the meteoric showers, we placed ourselves in a position to see the splendid phenomenon. On the first night, the imperials were ample, the firmament was beautifully studded with living sapphires; the frozen Pleiads twinkled in the zenith, and Orion, stretched out along towards the south, seemed to keep watch and ward among the sons of light, while the whole arch was rilled with nameless beauties that hung in their station obedient to the hand that placed them there, but seemed little inclined to obey the predictions of Professor Olmsted; and, to our mind, they were as well employed in their upper place as they could be in holding medly from their sphere, and tumbling "Down headlong from their native skies."

A slight glow in the north showed that other materials of light were at hand, though the beautiful Boreal blush was not dispersed, and no showers of light fell to gratify curiosity.
On the second night, there was a mantle of clouds spread between our eyes and the region of stars and meteors, and what was done above, we have now no means of knowing.—Phil. U. S. Gaz.

THE OHIO STATESMAN.

SESSION PAPER.

According to custom, we again present to the people of Ohio our prospectus for a paper during the session of the Legislature. Many persons who do not find it convenient to subscribe for a paper printed at this place for a whole year, do so during the sitting of the Legislature, being desirous of seeing what is done by those in whose keeping they have entrusted the affairs of the State. To accommodate this just desire in the people to be thoroughly acquainted with every thing pertaining to their happiness and welfare, we have in this prospectus extended facilities and favors beyond what has been customary. We shall issue during the session a weekly paper (free of advertisements), at fifty cents—a semi-weekly at one dollar—a tri-weekly at two dollars, and a daily at three dollars. By this arrangement we will be able to accommodate every portion of the State by all the mail, and we hope our friends will not be misled in availing themselves of the means of information. It is all important that every freeman should be fully acquainted with every question touching the welfare of the State and nation.

The approaching session of the Ohio Legislature will be a most important one. No previous one has ever had the same number of delicate and exciting questions to meet and act upon—questions which cannot be avoided, nor disposed of in a moment. Among these are our Internal Improvements, and the expenditures under them. The condition of our Banks, and the banking system under the second suspension. The apportionment of the State into Senatorial and Representative districts, and a more just and equitable taxation by a re-valuation of property will be discussed. All these questions have been confided, by the overwhelming voice of intelligent freemen to the care and keeping of the democratic party, and it is important that that party should meet them in sober earnestness, and in that spirit of candor and patriotism which they will bring together, for the public good.

We shall also give each sketches of the doings of Congress as we conceive of immediate interest to the State, by the earliest aid of correspondents. By the aid of a daily and tri-weekly paper, we shall be able to throw out the earliest eastern news, foreign and domestic, which we hope will not be overlooked by those desiring such information, and with the aid of a power-press, on a new and improved model, we expect to add greatly to the facility of preparing our papers for the mails, without the loss even of an hour. We ask only such support as corresponds with our exertions to make our paper useful to the public.

Terms of the session Paper.

Persons receiving this paper will consider themselves agents—and for five subscribers one gratis will be sent. Weekly (Ohio Statesman), $0.50. Semi-weekly, 1.00. Tri-weekly, 2.00. Daily, 3.00. All payments must be in advance or reference to a member of the Legislature. S. & M. H. MEDARY. Columbus, 1839.

FASHIONABLE TAILORING.

JOSEPH W. NEWBURGH, would respectfully inform his old friends and the public in general, that he carries on his above business in all its various branches, one door East of J. I. Smith's Store, where he may at all times be on hand to attend to all work entrusted to him. He flatters himself it will be done as durable, neat and fashionable, as it can be done in the country, as he attends at all times to keep in his employ good competent workmen, and his aim is to receive the Fashions promptly received for.

To accommodate his friends in the country, he will take nearly all kinds of country produce.
N. B. One or two apprentices wanted immediately to learn the Tailoring business. Boys between the age of 15 and 16, would be preferred. They must be of good character, as recommendations of industry, honesty, and sobriety, will be required.
Canal Dover, Aug. 15, 1839. tr.

PROSPECTUS OF THE SESSION BULLETIN.

The Bulletin will be issued twice a week during the session of the General Assembly, at the rate of $1.00 in advance.—A full and complete report of the proceedings of the two Houses will be given—Intelligent and faithful reporters will be employed for this purpose, and every effort of the Editor will be used to furnish the earliest possible intelligence to those who take an interest in the proceedings of the Legislature.

Having had hitherto, considerable experience in the publication of a paper, and in reporting the doings of the General Assembly, the Editor will endeavor to be outdone by none of his contemporaries in the promptness, correctness, and fidelity of this important branch of Legislative information; Those who were the patrons of our first Bulletin, and subsequently, of the Columbus Sentinel, while we were the Editor, never had cause to complain; but all professed to be well pleased; and such as may again favor us with their names and patronage, may rest assured that nothing in this particular, shall be wanting on our part to fulfill their just expectations and wishes. May the Editor appeal to the liberality and kindness of his friends and the public for a share of their support and patronage, and will Postmasters and others, into whose hands this may fall, obligingly extend it to such individuals as will be willing to subscribe? To such we will feel greatly indebted, and for any trouble they may thereby incur we will apply and satisfactorily reward them.
JOHN A. BRYAN.

DR. WILLIAM EVANS'S SOOTHING SYRUP.

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING.

PREPARED BY HIMSELF.

To Mothers and Nurses.

The passage of the teeth through the gum produces troublesome and dangerous symptoms. It is known by mothers that there is great irritation in the mouth and gums during this process. The gums swell, the secretion of the saliva is increased, the child is seized with frequent and sudden fits of crying, watching, starting in its sleep, and spasms of peculiar parts; the child shrieks with extreme violence, and thrusts its fingers into its mouth. If these precursory symptoms are not speedily alleviated, spasmodic convulsions universally supervene, and soon cause the dissolution of the infant. If mothers who have their little babes afflicted with these distressing symptoms would apply Dr. William Evans's Soothing Syrup, which has preserved hundreds of infants when thought past recovery, from being suddenly attacked with that fatal malady convulsions.

This infallible remedy has preserved hundreds (who thought past recovery, from convulsions). As soon as the Syrup is rubbed on the gum, the child will recover. This preparation is so innocent, so efficacious, and so pleasant, that no child will refuse to let its gums be treated with it. When infants are at the age of four months, though there is no appearance of teeth, one bottle of the Syrup should be used on the gums to open the pores. Parents should never be without the Syrup in the nursery where there are young children, for if a child wakes in the night with pain in the gums, the Syrup immediately gives ease, by opening the pores and heals the gums, thereby preventing Convulsions, Fevers, &c.
Entered according to Act of Congress. Be particular that the label on the box expresses such. The genuine is vended by Agents only.

A severe case of Piles cured at 100 Chatham street. Mr. Daniel Spinning of Shrewsbury, Eden Town, New Jersey, was severely afflicted with Piles for more than 20 years. Had recourse to medicines of almost every description, also the advice of several eminent Physicians, but never found the slightest relief from any source whatsoever until he called on Dr. Evans, of 100 Chatham street, New York, and procured some medicine from him, from which he found immediate relief, and subsequently a perfect cure.

Extract of a letter of Jonas Snyder, Post Master, Kemsville, Pa., to Dr. William Evans.
Among several cases, the following is found: An elderly lady, who had been 25 years so afflicted with nervous hydrochondria, debility, &c. that for the last 3 years she constantly received medical aid from a respectable physician; but the pressure and pain on her heart and breast, and especially with weakness in her head and on her mind, keeping her discouraged to undertake any thing. In May she commenced using Dr. W. Evans' medicines according to the directions accompanying them. A reaction took place; the pain and pressure in her body was removed; her mind became clear and strong; her spirits perfectly good, and up to this time it is in all respects restored to health, which she has last ten years has not enjoyed.
(Signed,) JONAS SNYDER.

September 7, 1838.

Another recent test of the unrivaled virtue of Dr. Wm. Evans' Medicine.—DYSPEPSIA, TEN YEARS STANDING.—Mr. J. McKenzie, 176 Stanton street, was afflicted with the above complaint for ten years, which impeded him at intervals, for the period of six years, attending to his business, restored to perfect health under the salutary treatment of Dr. Wm. Evans.

The symptoms were.—A sense of distention and oppression after eating, distressing pain in the pit of the stomach, nausea, impaired appetite, giddiness, palpitation of the heart, great debility and emaciation, depression of spirits, disturbed rest, sometimes a bilious vomiting, and pain in the right side, an extreme degree of languor and faintness; any endeavor to pursue his business causing immediate exhaustion and weakness.

Mr. McKenzie is daily attending to his business, and none of the above symptoms have recurred since he used the medicine. He is now a strong and healthy man. He resorted to myriads of remedies, but they were all ineffectual. He is willing to give any information to the afflicted respecting the inestimable benefit rendered to him by the use of Dr. Wm. Evans' medicine.

The above Medicine can be procured of all Dr. Wm. Evans' advertised agents in the United States, and throughout the World.
Dr. Evans, in order to prevent the patrons of his Medicines being imposed upon by counterfeiters, has had the labels of all his medicines entered according to Act of Congress. He requests them therefore, to be particular in seeing that the labels contain the following notice: "Entered according to Act of Congress by W. Evans, in the year 1839, in the Clerk's Office of the Southern District Court of New-York."

DR. EVANS'S PILLS.

For Consumption, Dyspepsia, and Liver Complaint.

Reader, are you afflicted with Indigestion, Costiveness, Sour Eructation, Loss of Appetite, Water Rash Pain or Distress at the Stomach, Sickiness after Eating, Languor, Palpitation of the Heart, Lassness of Spirits, Pain in the Head, Breast, Back, and Limbs, Dizziness and Confusion of Sight, a Fear of some impending Evil, Restlessness, a Dislike for Food, with other Nervous Symptoms, being laden with the Picture of the Dyspeptic, and Consumptive patient. Having resolved to remedy these procure immediately a box of DR. EVANS'S PILLS, a never failing and efficacious remedy for those dreaded foes of human happiness—Dyspepsia, Consumption and Liver Complaint, and the whole train of melancholic affections arising from diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels and Lungs.
Sold at the Office, 1 Chatham street, N. York.

DR. HUNT'S CELEBRATED PILLS.

FOR CONSUMPTION, DYSPEPSIA, AND LIVER COMPLAINT, &c.

As the enjoyment of health depends on preserving the functions of the Stomach, Liver, Intestines and Lungs, in a healthy and vigorous state, through the operations of which the body receives its growth, its nutrition, its support, it can no longer be astonishing that when these viscera are deranged, and cannot perform their proper functions, the whole system suffers and becomes disordered. Knowing this to be a sound and demonstrated fact, in science and experience, Doctor HUNT'S SYSTEM OF PRACTICE is an artificial accordance with it. He aims to keep the Stomach, Lungs and the Liver, in vigorous and healthy a life, as the three great fountains of health and life. For this purpose his pills are compounded of herbs, which strengthen and equalize the action of the heart, and give an impulse or strength to the arterial system, at the same time quicken the action of the absorbent and discharging vessels; and as all the secretions are drawn from the blood, any morbid secretion, which may have taken place is removed, all obstructions are overcome, the blood is purified, and the body assumes a healthy state. These pills give tone to the stomach, increase the appetite, and eminently expel acid and morbid matter through the excretory ducts into the passage of the bowels. In all cases of Consumption, Indigestion or Dyspepsia, Bilious Affections, or Liver Complaints, Heartburn, Sourness or Acidity in the Stomach, Tightness at the Chest, Loss of Appetite, Sick Head Ache, Pain in the Head, Back, Limbs and Side, Flatulency, Typhus and Scarlet Fever, Typhoid Stomach, Fever and Ague, or Intermittent Fevers, Gout, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Spasmodic Affections, and The Dolours, Convulsions of Children, Measles, Small Pox, Hooping Cough, Rickets, Teething, Worms, Female Obstructions, Chlorosis or Green Sickness, and Reactions of Food, and Costiveness, Colic, whether flatulent or bilious, follow the DIRECTIONS.

Dose.—Take from three to ten pills, till they operate, two or three times daily. The use of the pills must be persevered in till a cure is effected.

INTERESTING AND APPLICABLE TO THE AFFLICTED

WITH DISEASES OF THE STOMACH, OR NERVES.

Such as DYSPEPSIA, either Chronic or casual, under the worst symptoms of redness, Lossness of Spirits and General Languor; Consumption, whether of the Lungs or Liver; LIVER AFFECTIONS; JAUNDICE, both Bilious and Spasmodic; Costiveness; Worms of every variety; together with GOUT, Sciatica, Pains in the Head, Back, Limbs, and Side, Typhus Fever, SCARLET FEVER, Typhoid Stomach, FEVER and AGUE, Spasmodic Palpitation of the Heart and Arteries, Nervous Irritability, Nervous Weakness, Hysteria, The Lumbago Cramps, Female Obstructions, Heartburn, Headache Cough, the Common or humid, and the Dry or the Whooping; ASTHMA, Gravel and Dropsy.

The Blood has hitherto been considered by Empiricks and others, as the great regulator of the human system, and such is the devotedness of the adherents to this, with the simple persuasion of this fallacious opinion, without enquiring into the primary sources from whence Life, Health, and vigor emanate, and the various pains, sickness, disease and death. Not so with DR. HUNT whose extensive research and practical experience so eminently qualify him for the profession of which he has been one of the most useful members. He contends—and a moment's reflection will convince any reasoning mind of the correctness of his views—that the stomach, liver and the associated organs are the primary and great regulators of health, and that the blood in very many instances is totally disconnected with the first and succeeding stages of disease, and that unless a medicine reaches the root of the disease, the superficial remedies usually prescribed, serve but as foils to the ravages of deep-rooted malady. men, derange convulsions, at the amount with go close application, the doctor to of a medicine whose searching, irascible, and in prescribing, it is that the victim of its being a radical all this diseases already enumerated. or being very busy, and unable to superintend, to ask some friend, or a friend with you, to fetch some pills for you. The little girl stooped to keep the house, and taking some cold medicine, she put five embers on her nose, and was very hot. She called Doctor Hunt, and he found her with her nose on fire. He said, "You have been taking cold medicine, and it has set on fire your nose. I will take it off for you." He took it off, and she was cured.

MOTHER WIT.

Was a mother who had a child that was very sick. She had tried every thing, but it did not do any good. She then took Dr. Hunt's Pills, and the child was cured. She said, "I have seen many children afflicted with this disease, and I have never seen one cured but by Dr. Hunt's Pills." She then took Dr. Hunt's Pills, and she was cured.
